

“Reviews of “Like a Rolling Stone” Stone.”

“Five out of Five stars: A gem of a book.”

– Barbara Gowdy, author of “Falling Angels,” “We So Seldom Look on Love,” “Through the Green Valley.”

“Delicious storytelling. I loved it. A great work.”

— Terry Berkson,

Author of “Corvette Odyssey.”

“bravo! Invidia made palpable by friendship. It wells up within me again after finishing this delightful tale of a young Mark Howell’s dance of life in the glorious 1960s. Keep dancing!

— Ron Hignight,

Solares Hill, Key West, FL

“A nonstop visit to a wonderful time. The journey and its surprising ending left me wanting more about those Ohio Girls you met and enamored. I really loved this book.”

— Norman Blumenthal,

formerly of Harcourt Brace

Jovanovich.

“Just finished your fabulous book. It made my day.”

— Brewster Chamberlin, author of “Radovic’s Dilemma.”

Amazon reviews:

“A fine read, featuring two young and gregarious Brits on a shoestring budget romp across the USA during a very interesting era. Well written and essentially optimistic, it resonates with adventurous souls who experienced the sixties first hand inspiring younger readers to head out on a road trip of their own.”

"Reading this book made me feel like I was in the company of an old friend. It captures the spirit of the sixties when, yes, it was safe then to pick up hitchhikers and to sleep overnight out in a field in an automobile. I would gladly have been a third party to this 'counterfeit trip' across the country. TA funny and sometimes touching book that will especially appeal to the sixties generation and to anyone who appreciates a story well told."